THE ANTI-MONOPOLISTS ELECT OFFICERS AND ABOUT A DECADE AGO

WAR ON THE RAILROADS AND ALL MONOPOLIES—A TAX ON INCOMES PROPOSED—VIEWS OF THE LEGISLATORS ON THE QUESTIONS OF THE DAY.

CHICAGO, July 5.—The National Convention of Anti-Monopoly met again this morning. The Committee on Resolutions was not ready to report, and the interim was filled with speeches on the advisability of organizing a new party and the stand it should take on the tariff question. The resolutions of the anti-monopoly bodies of Oregon and New Jersey were read to the Convention, expounding the objects for which the assemblage met.

Mr. Brand of Nebraska, while in favor of free trade, declared that the tariff question should be provided the platform contemplated the suppression of all kinds of monopoly, and particularly of the railroad monopoly.

Mr. Samuel J. Crocker of Iowa characterized the present tariff as a scheme of robbery and declared that the tariff question was a question from his State were not present to keep quiet on questions which involved the robbery of the farmer.

Mr. Wolff of New York urged the Convention to confine itself to the question of anti-monopoly, and not to discuss the tariff. A new party until it had a million voters at its back.

had a nucleus already for the new party.

Mr. William Dodge of the District of Columbia, who had been a member of the National Association of Manufacturers of the country, asserting that they had reached the people of $200,000,000 worth of the people's property.

The U. S. Congressman Dr. La Motte of Indiana discussed the greenback question, and stated his intention of introducing a bill for the abolition of a new party directed against monopoly.

He declared that in a nation where the average annual income of the people was $1,000 a year, another class had incomes ranging from $100,000 to $1,000,000 annually. There is, he added, a class of people who own the land.

The Rev. K. Huber Newton and A. H. J. Duane of New York were admitted as delegates.

After the delegates had been seated, the delegates submitted the platform prepared by the committee, which was adopted. It advocated the national banking system, establishment of a graduated income tax and of postal savings banks, and the securing of the people's property, secure more perfect protection of inventors.

to imposing taxation to the power of Congress to assess and collect for the necessary expenses of the Government only, and denounces Congress in the necessities of life.

The following officers were elected: President John F. Henry of New York; Secretary D. F. Silver, Indiana; Assistant Secretary N. B. Killebrew, Ohio; Treasurer John W. Brown of New York, and a Vice-President from each State.

The Convention then adjourned.

DOUBTFUL APPROPRIATIONS.

The Governor of Pennsylvania Vetoes Many Items in the Supply Bill.

HARRISBURG, July 5.—The Governor to-day vetoed a large number of items in the General Appropriation bill. He presents objection to all the extra salaries for the chaplain, clerks

The Governor concludes his veto as follows:

In ascertaining the remaining items of the bill I was not unmindful of the fact that the Legislature has no right to appropriate money for the support of the executive branch of government, and that it is the duty of the Governor to see that no such appropriation is made. It is my belief that the Legislature has no right to appropriate money for the support of the executive branch of government, and that it is the duty of the Governor to see that no such appropriation is made.

Proposed Federation of Trades. PITTSBURGH, July 5.—The movement to reorganize the Knights of Labor, or establish in its place a Federation of trades, each independent of the others, has been reported a short time ago, seems to be gaining momentum. The afternoon edition of the Post says the Amalgamated Association, which is the strongest trade union in the country, has been in favor of the new movement. The afternoon edition of the Times says the Union of North America has also declared in favor of the new movement, and the Editor Freeman of the same city has also declared in favor of the new movement. The Post says the movement is a very real one, and that it is a very real one, and that it is a very real one.

workers, miners, and other trades, says in its issue for June 1, 1906, that the National Convention will be organized by the Knights of Labor, and that it will be held in New York City. The effect of this report will for a national Convention will probably be injurious shortly.

Music Teachers' Discussing Church Musicians.

PROVIDENCE, July 5.—At the session of the Music Teachers' National Association to-day S. B. Anthony of Boston read an essay on church music, in which he advocated a distinct American school of church music. He said that the subject of church music was discussed by several members.

He read a paper on the paper on the mathematical perfection of modern harmony, which he illustrated on a blackboard. Eugene Thayer of New York also read a paper on the same subject, and the study of music in schools.

He also read a paper on the social branch, H. E. Holt of Lexington, Mass., treated of the instruction in music in the public schools, illustrating his views by a class of Boston schools. His views are advanced and practical.

Tennessee's State Debt.

NASHVILLE July 5.—A bill was filed in the Chancery Court today by John R. Beasley, the defeated candidate for Governor in the last election, on a Greenback ticket, seeking an injunction restraining the State from paying the interest on the bonds known as railroad bonds, comprising seven-eighths of the State debt, until the State has paid the principal of the bonds of the State debt proper. A few days ago Beasley attempted to obtain a similar injunction against the State for the payment of the interest on the bonds, but the Judge declined to grant it. It is not believed that Beasley's object is supposed to be to keep up the agitation of the question among the low tax or repudiation element.

The New Hampshire Senatorship.

The meetings of the Commission will be held on every Wednesday, beginning Aug. 11.

Commissioner Spencer moved that Frederick H. Hamlin, Deputy Commissioner of the Public Works Department, be elected President of the Commission. Mayor Edison said that there were several applicants for the position, and on his suggestion Commissioner Dowd and the other members of the Commission of Public Works were appointed a committee to consider their applications.

John Hines' Narrow Escape.

As the 7 o'clock train of the New York, Woodbury and Atlantic City R.R. was passing through the station at Glendale, Wednesday evening, a fire engine struck John Hines of Glendale, who was walking on the track. The train was stopped, and one of the brakemen went back to look for the man, but only found one of his shoes. When the train reached the station at Hines' home, the driver of the engine saw that the only injury he received was a slight cut in the head and a bruise on the forehead. He was taken to the hospital, where he was found to have no serious injuries. He was released at 11 o'clock, but he was not recovered and went home. A Lad who has Saved Two Lives.

Charles Degener, the 15-year-old son of Henry Degener, proprietor of the milk depot and lunch room at 417 East Twenty-seventh street, was the youngest of the best swimmers of his age on the east side of the city. On Monday afternoon Thomas McCarthy, 9 years old, of 417 East Twenty-fifth street, while bathing at the foot of that street, slipped into deep water and drifted many feet from the shore. He was unable to swim and was on the point of drowning, when young Degener, who was swimming nearby, saw him in danger and rushed to his aid, saving him from drowning. McCarthy was taken safely out. Last spring young Degener saved a drunken man at the foot of East Twenty-seventh street in the same manner.

Unco Pacific Not Engaged.

Judge Wheeler of the United States Circuit Court denied yesterday the application for a preliminary injunction restraining the United States warship Company from obtaining money on bonds secured by the pledge of the securities of other roads, to aid in the construction and operation of connecting roads not yet in its line. Justice Wheeler says that the ship fails to make out a case as it does not intention to expend the money thus obtained, whereas the defendant claims that the money is to be used to pay the floating debt.

The Mayor to the City Marshal.

Mayor Edison yesterday decided the case against City Marshal's Refractor Chen and John A. Mahoney.

Hill. He dismissed the case against Coan on condition that he pays the complainant for her loss of time and her expenses, and directed Sulmiville to return to the county jail where she was kept, and pay money to her as overcharged her. The Mayor calls the Marshal's statement "a lie," and says that he has no right to take away the record Coan made which makes such action a misdemeanor, punishable by fine or imprisonment.

Got his Prisoners, but Not his Crime.

Detective English of the Elizabeth street station was informed recently that Edward, alias "Red" Reilly, and Timothy Sheehan had been concerned in the fatal stabbing of an Italian in Mulberry street in February last. They were taken into custody at the scene of the formation did not know the name of the murdered man, but they knew the place where it occurred, and the victims and they were remained. Then English tried to get a record of the crime, but couldn't.

Missing Since his Parents Left town.

The parents of George E. Smith, a lad of 17 removed from this city to Philadelphia about two years ago, leaving him in the employ of the Children's Aid Society. When they went to visit him at his boarding place, he was accompanied by a woman, a daughter, that he had left there almost simultaneously with their removal to Philadelphia. He had also given up his employment there. The police were not interested in what he wanted to do.

Curious Difference with a Mechanic.

David H. Merriam of Fitchburg, Mass., employed coach No. 93 to take him and two friends across Central Park, agreeing to pay Joseph Egan, the driver $2.50. They say that Egan drove them only as far as the 100th street, where they were met by a man who was recommended. Mr. Merriam paid the agreed price, and the coach started on its way to the Mayfield club, against Egan and Arthur Shurt, the owner of the coach.
